Attention: David B. Rubin, Esquire
Counsel for the California Independent System
Operator Corporation

Reference: Revision to its Transmission Access Charges

Dear Mr. Rubin:

On September 5, 2002, 2002, you submitted for filing, on behalf of the California Independent System Operator Corporation (ISO), an informational filing which shows the ISO's updated Transmission Access Charges that reflects the inclusion of the revised Transmission Revenue Requirement of Southern California Edison Company (SoCal Edison).¹ The Transmission Access Charge is determined through application of a formula rate and the instant informational filing reflects the charges that will be in effect beginning September 1, 2002, in accordance with that formula rate.

We acknowledge the receipt of the ISO's informational filing that reflects updated rates under the Transmission Access Charge rate methodology effective September 1, 2002. We note that the underlying formula rate is pending before the Chief Administrative Law Judge in Docket No. ER00-2019-000 and the rates thereunder are being collected subject to refund. Thus, the instant updated rates are also subject to the outcome of Docket No. ER00-2019-000.

¹SoCal Edison filed a proposed increase in its Transmission Revenue Requirement (TRR) in Docket No. ER02-925-000. By order issued April 10, 2002, 99 FERC ¶ 61,032 (2002), the Commission made SoCal Edison's TRR and associated rates effective September 1, 2002, subject to refund.

This filing was noticed on September 10, 2002, with comments, protests, or interventions due on or before September 26, 2002. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action is taken pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development - West, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. Further, this order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Coleman, Director
Division of Tariffs and Market
Development - West
