Reference: Transmission Tariff Revisions

On April 11, 2019, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) filed revisions to section 34.7 of its Open Access Transmission Tariff (Tariff).¹ The revisions modify existing dispatch principles for CAISO's reliability demand response resources in section 34.7(13) to clarify that these resources will be eligible for dispatch following CAISO's issuance of a warning notice, without any additional conditions. The revisions are accepted for filing, effective June 11, 2019, as requested.

This filing was noticed on April 12, 2019, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before May 3, 2019. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made
