RECOGNITION OF SUPPORT

The California Independent System Operator Corporation (“CAISO”) hereby respectfully submits its recognition of the supportive comments filed in the above-identified docket.¹ This proceeding concerns the CAISO’s filing of a proposed agreement with the Bonneville Power Administration (“Bonneville”), the Coordinated Transmission Agreement (“CTA”).

Bonneville outlined five reasons why the CTA will improve how Bonneville operates its transmission system and requested that the Commission accept the CTA. The Northwest EIM Entities, which include PacifiCorp, Portland General Electric, and Puget Sound Energy, stated their support for the CTA and recommended that the Commission accept it for filing. There were no other comments filed in this proceeding.

Bonneville filed comments in support as signatory to the CTA. The Northwest EIM Entities filed comments to state their expectations regarding the CTA so that all stakeholders understand their interests. Nothing in their comments requests that the Commission modify any provision of the CTA, defer the requested effective date, impose any condition on its implementation, or take any other action. The CAISO very much looks forward to continuing its coordination and collaboration with the Northwest EIM Entities throughout the implementation of the CTA.

The CAISO sincerely appreciates the support of Bonneville and the Northwest EIM Entities and requests that the Commission expeditiously accept the CTA for filing as requested.

Respectfully submitted,
