Attention: John C. Anders
Lead Counsel

Reference: Tariff Amendment to Reconcile Overlapping Provisions

Dear Mr. Anders:

On September 29, 2016, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) submitted for filing a tariff amendment to reconcile overlapping tariff records in the Commission's e-Tariff system. Specifically, CAISO submitted a revised Appendix C, Locational Marginal Price schedule (Appendix C), to its tariff in order to implement one ministerial revision which will restore a defined term, system marginal energy cost, that had previously been accepted by the Commission, but not included in the currently effective Appendix C as a result of subsequent unrelated filings. Waiver of the Commission's prior notice requirements pursuant to section 35.11 of the Commission's regulations (18 C.F.R. § 35.11) is granted,¹ and the revised Appendix C is accepted for filing, effective October 1, 2016, as requested.²

The filing was noticed on September 29, 2016, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before October 20, 2016. Pacific Gas and Electric filed a motion to intervene raising no substantive issues. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any unopposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or of any rate, charge, classification or any rule, regulation or practice affecting such rate or service contained in your filed documents; nor shall such acceptance be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such acceptance is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or any which may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against CAISO.

This action is taken pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - West under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Steve P. Rodgers, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation – West
