Attention: Anna A. McKenna, Esquire
Senior Counsel for the California Independent System
Operator Corporation

Reference: Revised Tariff Sheets

Dear Ms. McKenna:

On September 30, 2009, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) filed revised tariff sheets¹ to exempt loads and exports of load following metered subsystems (MSSs) from the allocation of the real-time imbalance energy neutrality offset charges or payments.² Waiver of the Commission's notice requirements pursuant to section 35.11 of the Commission's rules and regulations (18 C.F.R. § 35.11) is granted, and the proposed tariff sheets are accepted for filing effective October 1, 2009, as requested.

The filing was noticed on October 5, 2009, with comments, protests or motions to intervene due on or before October 21, 2009. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

¹ FERC Electric Tariff, Fourth Replacement Volume No. 1, Third Revised Sheet No. 235, and Original Sheet No. 235.01.

² The real-time imbalance energy offset is a neutrality adjustment, either a charge or a payment to demand, based on whether the CAISO has sufficient revenue from real-time demand market charges to compensate supply procured in the real-time market, which includes the hour-ahead scheduling process (HASP).

This action does not constitute approval of the referenced filing or of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rates or services provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders that have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against the California Independent System Operator Corporation.

This action is taken pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Tariffs and Market Development - West under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Steve P. Rodgers, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation -West
