BPM Change Management Process

BPM_CM@caiso.com
• Business Practice Manuals
  - The purpose of BPMs is to set forth business practices that implement the ISO tariff.
  - The ISO conducts a yearly policy initiative roadmap process to consider and rank initiatives.
    - Policy changes submitted through the PRR process will be referred to the policy initiative roadmap process.
  - Each subject area in a BPM is based on enabling language in the ISO tariff.
    - The PRR process cannot be used to introduce changes that are not supported by existing tariff authority.

P RR 1547 – Clarification to ancillary service state of charge constraint and bid cost recovery

• Reason for revision
  – Added the conditions where energy awards for storage resources are not eligible for bid cost recovery.
  – Recommendation comments: None

• Recommendation comment period expired: March 12, 2024
• Next step: Post Final Decision
PRR 1548 – New process for establishing wheeling through priority effective June 2024

• Reason for revision
  – With the existing process for establishing Wheeling Through Priority under the interim framework described in section 30.5.1(z) of the tariff expiring at midnight on May 31 2024, this revision describes the procedures associated with the calculation of Monthly ATC, submission of information, submission of monthly ATC requests manually and processing of Monthly ATC requests manually to launch a process in January 2024 for establishing priority for June 1, 2024 and beyond 2024.

    Effective date is 1/17/2024
  – Recommendation comments: None
• Recommendation comment period expired: March 12, 2024
• Next step: Post Final Decision
PRR 1552 – Clarification on Number of Historical Days Used in the Mosaic Quantile Regression

• Reason for revision
  – For Flexible Ramp Requirements, the ISO uses a technique called Mosaic Quantile Regression. This technique incorporates both histograms and quantile regression models to estimate uncertainty based on historical data. It was initially set at 180 days but is now configurable.
  – Recommendation comments: None
• Recommendation comment period expired: March 12, 2024
• Next step: Post Final Decision
