Variances or Issues Addressed

Removal of the Capacity Benefit Margin Implementation Document (CBMID) and Transmission Reliability Margin Implementation Document (TRMID) document links from the Home Page

The California ISO has determined that these requirements do not apply to the ISO because, under tariff appendix L, L.1.6 and L.1.7, the ISO does not maintain a capacity benefit margin or transmission reliability margin. Additionally, operating procedure S-322, applicable to CBMID and TRMID, was retired in August 2009. Thus, the ISO is also retiring CBMID and TRMID and removing the information from OASIS.

Both NAESB OASIS Waivers and Exemptions and ATC Implementation Document (ATCID) document links will remain accessible from the Home Page.

Proper redirection of the “OASIS Coordinator” link to the public caiso.com website “Contact Us” form

An error message “404 - The page could not be found” is displayed when the “OASIS Coordinator” link is accessed. Per deployment of OASIS 6.0.2.8.1, the “Contact Us” form page of the public caiso.com website must be available to enable a user to submit an inquiry to the ISO webmaster.

Proper redirection of the NAESB OASIS Waivers and Exemptions and ATC Implementation Document (ATCID) document links to the OASIS page of the public caiso.com website

The general “Application Access” page of the public caiso.com website is displayed, when either the NAESB OASIS Waivers and Exemptions or ATC Implementation Document (ATCID) document link is accessed. Per deployment of OASIS 6.0.2.8.1, the OASIS page of the public caiso.com website must be displayed which contains the waiver and ATCID documents.

Updated short description for the “OASIS Help” link on the OASIS footer section

The verbiage denoting the content of the “OASIS Help” link provided on the OASIS Home Page footer section will be updated/clarified, to specify that technical specifications, a product release plan (functionality list) document denoting known issues by function, and additional information about certain reports are accessible on the OASIS page of the public caiso.com website.
