Re: Notice of Planned Decisional Classification for “Commitment Costs and Default Energy Bid Enhancements”

Any objection by the Chairs to this decisional classification is due by March 2, 2018.

This is formal notice of ISO Management’s decisional classification for the “commitment costs and default energy bid enhancements” initiative. Any objection by the Chairs to the decisional classification is due by March 2, 2018. Otherwise, this initiative will be presented for decision consistent with the classification described below.¹

This initiative falls within the EIM Governing Body’s advisory role (E2). This means that the initiative will be presented to the Board for approval with any advisory input from the EIM Governing Body that it elects to provide.

This classification is consistent with the classification presented in the Briefing on Policy Outlook at the November 29, 2017 EIM Governing Body meeting.

The revised draft final proposal for this initiative is located here. Additional relevant papers for this initiative are located here.

Written stakeholder comments on the revised draft final proposal, including the proposed classification, were due February 27, 2018. There were no objections to the decisional classification in the revised draft final proposal.

¹ The process is described in the Guidance for Handling Initiatives within the Decisional Authority or Advisory Role of the EIM Governing Body.
