UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BEFORE THE FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION

California Independent System Operator) Docket Nos. ER11-3756-000 Corporation)

MOTION OF THE CALIFORNIA INDEPENDENT SYSTEM OPERATOR CORPORATION TO WITHDRAW ETARIFF FILING

I. Introduction

Pursuant to Rule 212 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R § 385.212) and the rules for filing rate schedules and tariffs
under the Federal Power Act, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (ISO) submits this motion to withdraw its eTariff submittal of the baseline Service Agreement No. 784, Non-Conforming Scheduling Coordinator Agreement between the ISO and Western Area Power Administration – Desert Southwest Region submitted on June 8, 2011 in Docket ER11-3756-000. After recent consultations with Commission staff, it has been determined that this eTariff baseline submittal was not necessary and may be withdrawn.
Accordingly, the ISO hereby withdraws the eTariff submittal filing and requests that the Commission take no action on the June 8 filing in this docket.

The ISO appreciates the Commission's prompt attention to this matter.

Please direct any questions regarding this filing to the undersigned below.

Respectfully submitted,
