Take notice that on May 24, 2002, the California Independent System Operator Corporation ("ISO") tendered for filing in the above-captioned dockets errata to its proposals for a Comprehensive Market Redesign filed on May 1, 2002, as well as to its Errata Filing of May 21, 2002. The ISO requests that certain elements of the errata filing be made effective on July 1, 2002 and others on October 1, 2002. The ISO states that this filing has been served on the California Public Utilities Commission, all California ISO Scheduling Coordinators, and all parties in Docket No. EL00-95 and ER02-1656.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure ( 18 C.F.R. $\S \S 385.211$ and 385.214 ). All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with § 35.9 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may also be viewed on the Internet at http://www.ferc.fed. us/online/rims. htm (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
