Reference: Compliance Filings

On November 16, 2018, and December 19, 2018, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) submitted compliance filings, as directed by the Commission.¹ CAISO states that it has revised its tariff records to reflect the April 1, 2019 effective date of the tariff amendments related to opportunity cost adders. The revisions are in satisfactory compliance with the October 23 Order, and are accepted for filing, effective April 1, 2019.

The filings were noticed on November 16, 2018, and December 20, 2018, with comments, protests, or interventions due on or before December 7, 2018, and January 9, 2019, respectively. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against
