Reference: Transferred Frequency Response Agreements

On August 27 and 28, 2019, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) separately filed seven executed Transferred Frequency Response Agreements (Agreements) with various parties.¹ The Agreements specify the terms and conditions under which each party will provide transferred frequency response service to CAISO, and under which CAISO will compensate each party for the service. The Agreements are accepted for filing, effective December 1, 2019, as requested.²

¹ The parties include: Tucson Electric Power; City of Tacoma Department of Public Utilities Light Division; Grant County Public Utility District; Chelan County Public Utility District City; Bonneville Power Administration; City of Seattle; and Powerex Corp.

² The corresponding eTariff records are listed in the attached Appendix.

These filings were noticed on August 27 and 28, 2019, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before September 17 and 18, 2019. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against CAISO.

This action is taken pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - West, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.
