Attention: John C. Anders, Esq.
Attorney for California Independent System Operator Corporation

Reference: Dynamic Transfer Operating Agreement

Dear Mr. Anders:

On August 6, 2014, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) filed a Dynamic Transfer Operating Agreement with Bonneville Power Administration (BPA), to allow for dynamic transfers between the two parties' systems consistent with the dynamic transfer provisions of the CAISO tariff. Further, CAISO states this agreement incorporates BPA's dynamic transfer business practice by reference, and communications and equipment requirements in Exhibit B. The submittal is accepted for filing, effective October 6, 2014, as requested.¹

The filing was noticed on August 7, 2014, with comments, protests, or interventions due on or before August 27, 2014. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or of any rate, charge, classification or any rule, regulation or practice affecting such rate or service contained in your tariff; nor shall such acceptance be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such acceptance is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or any which may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against California Independent System Operator Corporation.

This action is taken pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - West under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Steve P. Rodgers, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation – West
