California Independent System Operator Corporation,
Docket No. ER02-1656-_____

Dear Secretary Salas:

On May 1, 2002, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (AISO@) filed its Comprehensive Market Design Proposal ("MD02") in the above-captioned dockets. It has come to our attention that three errors were made in the tariff sheets accompanying the May 1 filing. First, two clean tariff sheets related to the penalty for uninstructed deviations from schedules, Original Sheet 247(a) and 247(b), were omitted from the filing. They are included in this errata filing as Attachment A.

Second, tariff language dealing with locational market power mitigation for the period from July 1, 2002 through October 1, 2002 was omitted from the tariff sheets filed on May 1.<sup>1</sup> The purpose of this intermediate period tariff language is to provide for the mitigation of locational market power prior to the time that the Residual Unit Commitment ("RUC") Process is operational. The intermediate period tariff language is included with this errata filing as Attachment B (clean) and Attachment C (redline).

Third, the locational market power mitigation sheets that were filed on May 1, Original Sheets 205 and 205A, and which are intended to become effective when the intermediate period tariff language described above expires on October 1, were mistakenly labeled "Effective: July 1, 2002" rather than October 1, 2002. Therefore, replacement sheets for 205 and 205A with the correct effective date are included in this errata filing as Attachment D.

Two additional copies of this filing are enclosed to be stamped with the date and time of filing and returned to our messenger. Also enclosed, as Attachment E, is a notice suitable for publication in the Federal Register, together with an electronic version of this notice in Word Perfect format. If there are any questions concerning this filing, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
