Attention: Michael D. Dozier, Esquire
Senior Counsel for California Independent
System Operator Corporation

Reference: Compliance Filing

Dear Mr. Dozier:

On March 20, 2009, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO), Pacific Gas and Electric Company, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, and Southern California Edison Company (collectively the Filing Parties) submitted for filing revisions to their pro forma Small Generator Interconnection Agreement (SGIA) in compliance with the Commission's Order on Rehearing and Compliance Filings issued on March 3, 2009.¹ In the March 3rd Order, the Commission directed the Filing Parties to make two revisions to the SGIA: (1) revise Article 6.1.2 to provide that Participating Transmission Owners are allowed six months, rather than three months, to provide a final accounting of construction costs; and (2) revise Article 12.12 to reflect this article as it was proposed in CAISO's original SGIA filing on February 10, 2006. The instant filing complies with the directives of the March 3rd Order. Accordingly, the revised tariff sheets for CAISO's pre-MRTU tariff are accepted for filing, effective November 16, 2007, and the revised tariff sheets for CAISO's MRTU tariff are accepted for filing effective March 31, 2009, consistent with effective dates established in prior Commission orders.

The filing was noticed on March 23, 2009, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before April 10, 2009. No protests or comments were filed. Notices

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or any rate, charge, classification or any rule, regulation or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such acceptance be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such acceptance is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or any which may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against the California Independent System Operator Corporation.
