Reference: Planning Coordinator Agreement

On April 27, 2021, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) filed a planning coordinator agreement (Agreement) between CAISO and the California Department of Water Resources (CDWR). The Agreement sets forth the terms under which CAISO will serve as planning coordinator for the transmission facilities owned by CDWR that are part of the bulk electric system located within CAISO's balancing authority area. Pursuant to the Agreement, CDWR will pay CAISO an annual service fee for its services as planning coordinator during the three-year term of the Agreement. The Agreement is accepted for filing, effective June 27, 2021, as requested.¹

This filing was noticed on April 28, 2021, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before May 18, 2021. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed
