Attention: Beth Ann Burns
Senior Counsel for California Independent System
Operator Corporation

Reference: Compliance Filing

Dear Ms. Burns:

On December March 26, 2015, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) submitted a filing to comply with a Commission order issued on February 24, 2015.¹ The tariff revisions are in satisfactory compliance with the February 24 Order, and are therefore accepted for filing, effective November 1, 2014, commensurate with the effective date in the February 24 Order.

The filing was noticed on March 27, 2015, with comments, protests, or motions to intervene due on or before April 16, 2015. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against CAISO.

This action is taken pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation - West, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307. This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Steve P. Rodgers, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation – West
