Reference: Compliance Filing

On December 19, 2018, the California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) submitted a compliance filing, as directed by the Commission.¹ The tariff revisions specify how CAISO will determine the natural gas futures commodity price used to calculate forecasted gas prices for opportunity cost adders. The revisions are in satisfactory compliance with the November 19 order, and are accepted for filing, effective April 1, 2019.

The filing was noticed on December 20, 2018, with comments, protests, or interventions due on or before January 9, 2019. No protests or adverse comments were filed. Notices of intervention and unopposed timely filed motions to intervene are granted pursuant to the operation of Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 385.214). Any opposed or untimely filed motion to intervene is governed by the provisions of Rule 214.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against CAISO.
