Reference: Order No. 676-I Compliance Filing

On April 6, 2022, California Independent System Operator Corporation (CAISO) submitted revisions to its Open Access Transmission Tariff (Tariff) in compliance with the directives in a Commission order issued on March 7, 2022.¹ Specifically, CAISO has revised Attachment B, section 7.3.3 of its Tariff to indicate that the Commission has granted waiver of specific standards of the Version 003.2 Standards for Business Practices and Communication Protocols for Public Utilities adopted by the Wholesale Electric Quadrant of the North American Energy Standards Board, and included a cite to the March 7 Order, which granted waiver of the standards. The revisions are in satisfactory compliance with the March 7 Order. Pursuant to authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – West, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307 (2021), the OATT revisions are accepted for filing, effective May 1, 2022, as requested.²

The filing was publicly noticed, with interventions and protests due on or before April 27, 2022. Pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's regulations (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2021)), notices of intervention, timely-filed motions to intervene, and any unopposed motions to intervene out-of-time filed before the issuance date of this order are granted. No protests or adverse comments were filed.

This action does not constitute approval of any service, rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, contract, or practice affecting such rate or service provided for in the filed documents; nor shall such action be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation affecting or relating to such service or rate; and such action is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against CAISO.

This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713 (2021).
