

California ISO

2021 Summer Readiness Update

Stakeholder Call

December 8, 2020

Agenda

Topic	Presenter
Welcome and introductions	Kristina Osborne
2021 Summer Readiness webpage	Stacey Crowley
Updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Roadmap to completing root cause analysis- Market rules and processes- Summer resource needs- Demand response crediting	Mark Rothleder Anna McKenna Neil Millar Stacey Crowley
Next Steps	Joanne Serina
Q&A

2021 Summer Readiness Webpage

Stacey Crowley

Vice President, External and Customer Affairs

2021 Summer Readiness Webpage

- New dedicated webpage launched on November 30th
 - A single location where visitors can find summer readiness related information on the ISO website, including
 - Analysis of August 2020 outages
 - Planning efforts to prepare for future heat waves
 - Initiatives that support readiness activities
 - Stakeholder engagement opportunities
 - Flex Alert information
 - Other resources
 - Access from www.aiso.com homepage
- <http://www.aiso.com/about/Pages/News/SummerReadiness.aspx>

Roadmap to Completing Root Cause Analysis

Mark Rothleder

Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

Market Rules and Processes

Anna McKenna

Interim Head of Market Policy and Performance

Areas for Potential Changes in Market Rules and Processes

- Penalty Prices and Scheduling Priorities in CAISO Markets
- Management of Storage Resources
- Short-Term Pricing Signals
- System Market Power Mitigation

Summer Resource Needs

Neil Millar

Vice President, Infrastructure and Operations Planning

Demand Response Crediting

Stacey Crowley

Vice President, External and Customer Affairs

Next Steps

- Publish final root cause analysis report
- Summer 2021 Reliability Monthly Report (December, 2020)
<http://www.caiso.com/Documents/Summer-2021-Reliability-MonthlyReport-Dec1-2020.pdf>
- Regularly scheduled stakeholder calls to provide updates on summer readiness activities
 - Details will be communicated in a future notice
- Please direct general questions to isostakeholderaffairs@caiso.com; members of media should contact isomedia@caiso.com.