

Ten West Link 500 kV Transmission Line and Cielo Azul 500 kV Switchyard

July 31, 2024

CONFIDENTIAL

Project Details

- Ten West Link 500 kV transmission line (Delaney – Colorado River 500 kV Line)
  - Project Sponsor – DCR Transmission, L.L.C.
  - Project Awarded – July 2015
  - Project Capacity – 3,200 MW Conductor Capability and 2,400 MW Series Compensation Station
  - Line length - 125 miles (103.5 in Arizona and 21.5 miles in California), series compensated line
  - Arizona Terminus – Delaney Substation 500 kV bus (APS)
  - California Terminus – Colorado River 500 kV bus (SCE)
  - Construction Details
    - ✓ Construction Started – October 2022
    - ✓ Construction Completed – February 7, 2024
    - ✓ Line Energized – June 7, 2024
- Cielo Azul Switchyard - A 500 kV, six-bay, 18 breaker ultimate, breaker-and-a-half switchyard being constructed to interconnect gen projects in the CAISO LGIP
  - Located approximately 39 circuit miles from Delaney substation
  - Construction commenced early July 2023, anticipated interconnection to Ten West Link date in Q4 2024, Expected COD with Phase 1 of the Project – Q1 2024

Project Route for Ten West Link and location of Cielo Azul

Ten West Link Project Location and Groundbreaking Ceremony

Project Map

Construction (October 2022)

Illustrative Layout

- Substation
- Transmission Line
- Interstate

Groundbreaking Ceremony

From left to right: AZ governor Harris, CAISO CEO Mainzer, Lotus CEO Saxena, VP Kamala Harris, Interior Secretary Haaland, Energy Secretary Granholm, WH advisor Zaidi

Helicopter Construction through Copper Bottom Pass

Series Compensation Station

Cielo Azul Switchyard Construction Aerial Photograph

